

AI DIDN'T REPLACE PROCESS MANAGEMENT. IT RAISED THE STAKES.

As AI became the priority,
many organizations concluded...

Is that the right tradeoff?

THE ASSUMPTION

AI is the priority.
Process management
can wait.

THE NEW REALIZATION

AI doesn't compete with process management.
Organizations serious about AI need stronger process capability.
Process capability enables successful AI.

What if AI and process management were never competing priorities?

Process capability is the foundation that helps AI deliver real business results.
